

Computers and computer education is essential for economic growth and job creation. Education and Economic stability is the greatest alliance to fight against hunger and poverty. Children as well as adults need to learn how to use a computer to insure a better future for themselves and for their families. Another Joy Computer Missions provides computers and computer literature to schools and our associated organizations around the world. The computers are fully refurbished and upgraded with the latest software.